RYAG Sheep is a residential camp conducted at Walcha and is an excellent opportunity for students interested in exploring either or both the wool and meat aspects of the sheep industry through informative and hands-on activities presented by experienced and expert people actively engaged in the sheep industry in the Walcha area. Participating students will enjoy the opportunity to gain strong insights into the sheep industry in a wide range of potential career paths.

Accommodation will in the revamped shearers' quarters. Students must bring their own bedding/sleeping bag & pillow. At all times appropriate supervision will be exercised to ensure the wellbeing of all participants.

RYAG Sheep has consistently proved to be an enjoyable and rich learning experience from which students gain a wealth of knowledge about the sheep industry. Participation can be the game changer for future career paths with the added bonus of making lasting friendships with like-minded people.
